DEMOCRAT FOR CONGRESS

Exciting Internships: Elect Dan Seals to Congress

---

Location: Deerfield, Illinois and Surrounding Areas

Organization: Dan Seals for Congress

Paid or unpaid: Unpaid (academic credit available)

Start & End Dates: Flexible

Last updated: October 2009

Job Description:

We are offering individuals interested in government and politics the opportunity to become a part of our fast-paced, cutting-edge campaign team. Valuable experience will be gained in the following areas: field visibility and voter contact (door-to-door canvassing, phone banking, database development, online organizing, mapping, event planning, and participating in parades and campaign events), research and communications (campaign message, issues research, opposition research, media relations and writing), finance and fundraising (research, data entry, call time with the candidate and event planning) and office support.

This is an excellent opportunity to learn the inside workings of a campaign for United States Congress while making valuable contacts for a future role in government and politics. Interns will sharpen their communication and analytical skills, gain an enhanced understanding of national and local politics and work directly with campaign staff and volunteers.

Qualifications:

We're looking for students living in or near Illinois' Tenth Congressional District with:

- an interest in Democratic politics
- good written, oral and organizational skills
- the ability to handle a variety of contacts with finesse
- a flexible schedule
- a passion for electing Dan Seals to the United States Congress.

Political interns must be fast learners as well as effective communicators who are ready and willing to spread the word about Dan Seals. High school and college level interns should have a strong academic record. College-level interns enrolled in a related field of study (e.g. communications, political science, marketing, computer science, Spanish) are encouraged to apply.

Application instructions:

Applications will be accepted on a rolling basis depending on availability. Campaign work is flexible, and we can accommodate schedules. Internships are not paid, but students are able to earn college or high school credit, depending on the requirements of the institution.

Applications can be submitted online at www.DanSealsforCongress.com/internships. Please direct questions to Peter at info@DanSealsforCongress.com or you can call 847-945-8900 and leave a Peter message at the campaign office. We look forward to receiving your application!
